

The news presented by media sources is extremely limited in its depth of coverage and inclusiveness of varied voices/perspectives. I am greatly concerned that what little variation that currently existed will be further silenced by repealing the cross-ownership ban. Please seriously consider how you will be limiting citizens access to full and complete information if you approve cross-ownership.